

The Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality

New York University

Fall 2001 Calendar of Events

Thursday, September 20, 12:30 p.m. - 1:45 p.m.

A Meeting in Response to the New York/Washington Attack

Presented by The Women's Studies Program and CSGS: A meeting to discuss the recent attack and the various gendered dimensions of the unfolding events.

Beverages will be served. Feel welcome to bring lunch. For more information, please call 212/992-9541.

CSGS Conference Room, 285 Mercer Street, Third Floor

Tuesday September 25, 12:30 p.m. - 1:45 p.m.

CSGS Lunch Series for the Presentation of New Research

Women in Doctoral Studies

A presentation by Diana Leonard, University of London. Lunch will be served; attendance limited to 20. RSVP to Bernadine Cidranes at 212/992-9540 or bernadine.cidranes@nyu.edu.

CSGS Conference Room, 285 Mercer Street, Third Floor

Thursday and Friday, September 27 and 28

Miniconference: "The Traffic in Kinship: Culture, Politics, & Images in Transnational Adoption"

Presented by The Center for Media, Culture, and History at NYU; co-sponsored by CSGS

Various times and NYU locations; please visit www.nyu.edu/gsas/dept/media for more information.

Monday, October 1, 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Lesson Plans: Pedagogy Workshops on Teaching Gender and Sexuality

Fostering Dissent in the Classroom

Facilitated by Alisa Solomon, Baruch College and the Graduate Center, and Carolyn Dinshaw, NYU.

Presented by the Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies at CUNY and CSGS. For registration and additional information, please contact CLAGS at 212/817-1955 or by email: clags@gc.cuny.edu.

The Graduate Center, CUNY, Room 9206

Tuesday, October 2, 6:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

A New York University Teach-In: Academics and Activists discuss Sept. 11 and its aftermath

What is War? What is Peace?

Panelists will include: Paul Chevigny, NYU Law School; Muzaffar Chishti, UNITE Immigration Project; Sanaz Mozafarian, Direct Action Network (NYC); Marilyn Young, NYU Dept. of History.

Sponsored by the following NYU departments and organizations: Adjuncts Come Together (ACT-UAW); Center for African American, Latino & Asian American Student Services; Africana Studies; American Studies; Art Education; Asian/Pacific/American Studies; Drama; East Asian Studies; Center for European Studies; Gallatin School of Individualized Study; Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality; Graduate Student Organizing Committee (GSOC-UAW); Graduate Students of Color Network; Hagop Kevorkian Center; Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies; Metropolitan Studies; Middle Eastern Studies; United Staff Association (Local 3882-AFT).

Judson Memorial Church, Washington Square South at Thompson St.

Tuesday, October 9, 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Film screening, discussion, and reception with filmmaker Andrea Weiss; comments by Ulrich Baer, NYU Department of Germanic Languages and Literature

Escape to Life: The Erika and Klaus Mann Story

Presented by CSGS; co-sponsored by New York Women in Film and Television and the following NYU units: the Department of Germanic Languages and Literature, Deutsches Haus, and the Department of History
Deutsches Haus, 42 Washington Mews

Tuesday, October 9, 7:00 p.m.

Performance Studies Tuesday Night Forum Series:

Jenny Lind's Cosmopolitan Whiteness

Gustavus T. Stadler examines 1850 US tour by Swedish diva Jenny Lind. Stadler will present a critical response to Lind's first US performances in the context of antebellum racial politics, including their manifestation in the boom in blackface minstrelsy. Co-sponsored by the American Studies Program, the Humanities Council Working Group in Queer Studies, and CSGS.

721 Broadway, Room 636.

Thursday, October 11, 12:30 p.m. - 1:45 p.m.

CSGS Lunch Series for the Presentation of New Research: Jane Rothstein, NYU Skirball Department of Hebrew and Judaic Studies and Department of History
"Family Purity: Gender, Sexuality, and American Jews in the Early 20th Century"
Lunch will be served; attendance limited to 20. RSVP to Bernadine Cidranes (bernadine.cidranes@nyu.edu, 212/992-9540)
CSGS Conference Room, 285 Mercer Street, Third Floor

Tuesday, October 16, 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Public Lecture: John Bowers, University of Nevada, Las Vegas

"Three Readings of Chaucer's 'Knight's Tale': Homosocial, Patriarchal, Heteronormative"

Respondent: Penelope Johnson, NYU Department of History

Presented by The Center for Research in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance (CRMAR) and CSGS

Berol Room, Fales Library, Elmer Holmes Bobst Library, 70 Washington Square South, Third Floor

Tuesday, October 30, 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Performance Studies Tuesday Night Forum Series

To Babylon and Back Again: A Talk and Screening with Kenneth Anger

Attendance is limited and advance reservations are required; please contact John Fanning at 212/992-9545 or john.fanning@nyu.edu.

721 Broadway, Room 656.

Tuesday, November 6, 12:30 p.m. - 1:45 p.m.

A Follow-Up Discussion on the Gendered and Sexualized Dimensions of the WTC Attack

Please pick up readings in advance, after November 1 at CSGS; discussion led by CSGS Professor Rabab Abdulhadi. Drinks will be served; please feel welcome to bring a lunch.

CSGS Conference Room, 285 Mercer Street, Third Floor

Thursday, November 8, 2001, 5:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

OASIS Women of Color Forum:

Where's the Color in Women's Studies?

What do gender and sexuality have to do with race and ethnicity? Is feminism stigmatized in communities of color? Are there barriers between women of color and white women? Please join us and contribute your experiences to our discussion of these important issues. Presented by the Office for African American, Latino, and Asian American Student Services, and CSGS.

Von Guerard Lounge, 12th Floor, Bobst Library

Tuesday, November 13, 12:30 p.m. - 1:45 p.m.

CSGS Lunch Series for the Presentation of New Research: Patrick McCreery, NYU American Studies Program

"Miami Vice: Anita Bryant, Gay Rights, and the Discourse of Child Endangerment"

Lunch will be served; attendance limited to 20. RSVP to Bernadine Cidranes (bernadine.cidranes@nyu.edu, 212/992-9540)

CSGS Conference Room, 285 Mercer Street, Third Floor

Tuesday, November 13, 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Crouching Identity, Hidden Masculinity: Asian Men, An American Story

The dutiful servant. The comical sidekick. The evil, wily trickster. The super nerd. The corrupt corporate infiltrator. The asexual kung-fu master. How has mass media impacted the way Asian men are perceived in American society? How does this affect them socially and personally? What do these perceptions do to Asian Americans as a community? Please join us for this interactive dialogue. To RSVP or for more information, contact Melinda Aquino at melinda.aquino@nyu.edu or 212/998-4316.

Presented by the Office for African American, Latino and Asian American Student Services; Asian/Pacific/American Studies Program and Institute; Pan-Asian Council; TSOA Asian Working Artists, South Asian Alliance, CSGS.

Tisch School of the Arts Common Room, 721 Broadway.

Thursday, November 15, 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

A workshop on evidence in the history of sexuality, on the occasion of the Fales Library acquisition of John Addington Symonds' copy of Walt Whitman's Leaves of Grass:

"Out of the Past: Reconstructing Queer Lives from Historical Evidence"

Featuring independent scholar Jonathan Ned Katz, Wesleyan University's Henry Abelove, Marvin Taylor of NYU's Fales Library, and Lisa Duggan of the Department of History and the American Studies Program at NYU
Presented by The Fales Library and CSGS
Fales Library, Elmer Holmes Bobst Library, 70 Washington Square South, Third Floor

CSGS is also co-sponsoring three public lectures being presented by the Pride Month at NYU Committee:

Monday, October 8: Silvia Rivera, transgender activist and veteran of the Stonewall Riots

Monday, October 15: Patrick Califia-Rice, queer activist and author

Thursday, October 25: Barbara Smith, renowned feminist and queer activist and author.

All events are free and open to the public. For disability access and other information, updates on these events, and news about additional events please call 212/992-9540 or visit www.nyu.edu/fas/gender.sexuality.

In addition to the NYU events listed above, CSGS is co-sponsoring two film/video series off campus this fall. Please note that admission fees do apply to these events.

First, to honor the 15th anniversary of MIX: The Lesbian and Gay Experimental Film/Video Festival, CSGS will co-present three retrospective programs curated by former MIX directors Jim Hubbard, Shari Friilot, Raj Roy, and Anie S8 Stanley:

Memorizing Mix: The First 15 Years:

Program I: Dispatches from the Front (1987 - 1992)—Thursday, November 15, 7:00 p.m.

Program II: Cuntly Revue (1993 - 1996)—Friday, November 16, 9:00 p.m.

Program III: Shoot Fast, Play Hard (1997 - 2000)—Saturday, November 17, 11:00 p.m.

All MIX programs take place at Anthology Film Archives, 32 Second Ave at Second Street. For more information and a complete MIX schedule, please visit www.mixnyc.org or call 212/571-4242.

Second, CSGS co-presents SEXperimental, a film series celebrating the 40th anniversary of the New York Filmmakers' Co-Op and co-curated by NYU Cinema Studies doctoral student Elena Gorfinkel:

Raw! Naked! Realism!: Sunday, November 4, 7:00 p.m.

Digestible Porn: Sunday, November 4, 9:30 p.m.

Free Your Mind and Your Ass Will Follow: Sunday, November 11, 8:30 p.m.

The NY Filmmakers' Cooperative 40th Anniversary Party: Sunday, November 11, 10:00 p.m.

Sade Stories: Sunday, November 18, 8:30 p.m.

The Carnal Connection: Sunday, November 25, 8:30 p.m.

All screenings take place at Galapagos Art and Performance Space in the Williamsburg area of Brooklyn. For more information about the screenings, visit www.ocularis.net. For directions to Galapagos Art Space, visit www.galapagosartspace.com.